Mr. Thomas:

- Introduction of Parents As Partners committee
- 3 new students today – 454 students total
- Prediction – finish with 470-480 students – Lots of growth!

- Friday September 13 is Muffin morning – We have done a Pancake breakfast in the past but it didn't work out for this year
  - Tim Horton's donating coffee
  - Co-op – muffins
  - Coffee stations set up throughout halls with members of Barons football team, Bobcats, Lakeland Rustlers supervising

New Business:

- Our purpose as Parents As Partners is not just hot lunches, we are more involved in school improvement set up through the Saskatchewan government, where does the school need help and improvement
- The SCC election was in May – We need an official council
- We are currently looking for a Vice-Chair – who would assist the Chair position and help organize things, anyone interested can speak to Mr. Thomas
- Monthly hot lunches – We try to mix it up, and it's usually the last Thurs of the month
- Look for volunteers for hot lunches and picture days
- How did parents find out about Parents As Partners? Most said newsletter – We could send a note in the agendas, pamphlet to send home or maybe some sort of automated text?
- Key dates coming up: Oct. 22 next meeting and Mr. Thomas will be bringing in the School Improvement plan : September 23 + 24 – Picture day
- Breakfast Program starting this year to feed those that don't always get to eat breakfast and as well there are lunches put aside for that reason as well
- There will be Rendell Park clothing to order this year
- Oct. 11 – Terrific Kid Assembly
- Terry Fox run – Classes are getting out and walking/running and adding up their km's, making signs to carry the day of the walk, classes usually have their students bring $1 if they would like
