- Welcome from Kari-Lynn
- Diane approves Feb meeting minutes, Laurie seconds
- Update: Can Tabs – April – Bring in until end of March
 - President will give April's contact to their diabetic chair people
 - He suggested speaking briefly to the students about where their tabs are going, 5-10 minutes at April assembly possibly

Mr. Gallagher:

- Volunteer Spot – How did everyone like it? Response was very positive, so far so good
- Tell Them From Me Survey – Prizes given to students
 - in the lead for our division
 - valuable feedback
- Board Members visiting May 12-17, Sheldon to tour the school with them and then sit down to talk to them
- Pitch in week is April 27
- Farm Safety is May 12
- Sask READS – our library quality has gone down, if we ever need to put some money anywhere Sheldon suggests the library would be a great place for some extra funds, $1000 of the school budget is going to go into the library
- Pi Day – The Gow's went around to Grades 5 & 6 with pie and the classes were shown what Pi is

Hot Lunch:

- Snack days in March, yogurt was last week and apple slice day was cancelled
- Mar 25 & 26 – Subway, Grade 5 volunteers
- April 28, 29 & 30 – McDonald's, Set price at $5.50 instead of $6 makes the costs more reasonable for people
- May – Booster Juice

Community/School Garage Sale – May

- The money raised is for each classroom, Educational Fund – Each grade's teacher's meet and discuss what SCC could contribute to them for educational purposes
- Each teacher/class will get $50 for year end activity – this will be the last year for that
- Got approval for a C-Can in our yard for storage (garage sale items) we'll advertise for him and there will be no cost for the C-Can
- We'll get a lock and few extra keys for it so that a few people can have access to keep putting items in
- Advertisements – The Goat, The Bean, The Booster, Facebook, make posters and put on community boards like Sobeys and Co-op
- Weatherford is donating shelves and racks for our items
- Possibly a snack table selling treats – maybe our Spirit group can work it
- Set up dates for garage sale item drop offs – April 10 between 2pm-7pm
April 15 & 16 6pm-8pm, April 21 & 23 6pm-8pm
Drop can also be during school hours 9am-4pm

Next meeting April 21
